

Truth-Sayers

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

The prophets were the truth-sayers of their day. They were willing to say difficult things—at times to kings, sometimes to religious leaders, and still at other times to the entire community when the community was unfaithful to the Lord God. In our own time, we continue to need those who speak the truth to us. While it is not always pleasant, it is a grace to have people in our lives who smooth out our rough edges. Spouses can be that for one another. Parents are that for their children, as they teach, correct, and discipline in ways that nurture the young ones into adulthood. Presidents need someone willing to say difficult things to them, as do pastors of parishes and anyone in a position of responsibility.

Sometimes social movements rise up and call our attention to injustices that need to be addressed.

Those voices can be prophet-like in our own time. The Church is such a voice when it advocates for the protection of the unborn, the immigrant, and those oppressed. The civil rights movement is such a voice in the face of violence and injustice to people of color. There are voices who call the Catholic Church to be accountable for abuse. Scientists call on us to pay attention to the environment. Whenever and wherever truth-sayers call human beings to become their better selves, there lies the Spirit of God raising a prophetic voice. ●

Reflect

*Who has been a truth-sayer for you?
How have they impacted your life?*

Whether they hear or resist—they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

ADVANCE STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION ON THE LECTIONARY READINGS

July 7, 2024

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

EZ 2:2-5; PS 123:1-2, 2, 3-4; 2 COR 12:7-10; MK 6:1-6

Our readings today remind us that, even in our weakest and toughest moments, God has a plan.

In our Second Reading, St. Paul describes a "thorn" that had been given to him. He believed this thorn to be the thing that kept him grounded as he said, "to beat me, to keep me from being too elated."

At first, he asked the Lord to remove this cross, but the Lord replied, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." Through this explanation, St. Paul resolved to believe, "I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong."

We all bear crosses in this life, whether they seem to be little thorns or sharp daggers. The easiest thing to do, as St. Paul did, is to pray for the cross to be taken. It would be great if all of our struggles just magically faded away! But listen to the Lord's words, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness."

Stop and reflect on your cross. Instead of wishing it to go away, look at it as an opportunity to grow and to allow God to work in your life. God permitted this cross in your life for a reason. Do not let the opportunity for Christ to work on your heart pass you by.

Today, recall that God loves us more than we could ever imagine. There is not a moment that goes by that He does not have us in mind. He has a specific plan for our lives. Therefore, may we encounter life's challenges with confidence in Christ.

The Council of Catholic Women ...

The purpose, as described by the US Catholic bishops at its founding, was to give Catholic women a common voice and an instrument for united action - not to replace the work of any existing woman's group but rather to stimulate their growth and unify them.

IF ANY LADIES ARE INTERESTED IN THE COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN AT OLR, PLEASE CONTACT JOAN WALKER AT 850-624-6891 FOR FURTHER INFORMATION.

The faithful are encouraged to honor the Precious Blood always and especially during the month of July. Consider making an act of love to the Precious Blood every day this month, such as an Act of Consecration to the Precious Blood of Jesus and the Litany of the Precious Blood as an act of love and reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The Precious Blood courses through the Church, giving life to the Body of Christ. It was the cleansing agent that allowed the holy saints and martyrs to wash their robes clean. It is the price of our redemption, the object of our salvation, and the assurance of our eternal inheritance.

As we honor the Precious Blood of Jesus in union with the Church this month, may it awaken in our hearts a love and gratitude for Christ's gift to us, for He has saved us by His blood.

July 15, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Greetings in the Lord. I am pleased to call to your attention the wonderful work and mission of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (DCCW). It is an honor and a privilege for all of us to be associated with this group of faithful, dedicated, and generous women. From humble beginnings here in the diocese, they have grown to form a community of faith and charity, assisting our efforts to preach the Good News everywhere.

We will celebrate their achievements by recognizing them in a special way as we observe the month of August 2024 as Council of Catholic Women Month.

At the request of the bishops of the United States, the National Council of Catholic Women was founded in 1920, for the purpose of uniting the efforts of Catholic women's groups. NCCW is an organization representing millions of women, who through diocesan and parish affiliates, support, empower, and educate Catholic women in spirituality, leadership, and service. I continue to invite and encourage all women of our diocese to consider membership in this distinguished organization. By joining your parish affiliation of the Council of Catholic Women, you are automatically a member of the Diocesan, State, and National Council of Catholic Women. Your voice then becomes one of many to be heard not only in the diocese, but on the state and national levels as well.

May the women of our diocese be united in purpose, direction and action in religious, educational, legislative, social, and economic fields to meet the needs of the times.

With every best wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ

Most Reverend William A. Wack, CSC
Bishop of Pensacola-Tallahassee

Dear Padre,

My Protestant friends asked me why we call priests "Father" when Jesus said not to. I don't know how to answer.

Jesus instructs his disciples, "As for you, do not be called 'Rabbi.' You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven" (Matthew 23:8-9). Taken in context, Jesus is denouncing the scribes and Pharisees for bestowing honors and titles on themselves. If taken literally, this passage would also prohibit us from calling our biological fathers by that name, or our instructors "professor."

Jesus assures us that God is Father of us all. The early Christian community adopted family terms—father, mother, brother, sister—to show their affiliation through baptism and their mutual faith in the Lord (See Luke 8:21, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and act on it.")

Thus, St. Paul refers to Timothy as his "child in faith" (1 Timothy 1:2; Philippians 2:22). He also tells his Christian converts, "I am writing...to admonish you as my beloved children. Even if you should have countless guides to Christ, yet you do not have many fathers, for I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel" (1 Corinthians 4:14-15). Like St. Paul, who speaks of himself as a father in nurturing the faith, priests are called "Father" for their pastoral role in the Church. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The radical change Jesus brought about commits his disciples of both yesterday and today to a personal and community [self] examination.... Today, the Lord asks us to adopt an attitude of humble listening and docile expectation because God's grace often manifests itself in surprising ways that do not match our expectations.
